Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks; With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

Was the Vice-Presidential Nomination on the Douglas Ticket Tendered to William L. Yancey.

We have received a large number of letters from different parts of the Union, asking exact information as to the statement, made in several public speeches by one of our editors, concerning the tender of the Vice-Presidential nomination, made by the Douglas men, to the Hon. Wm. L. Yancey. With the pressure of work now upon our hands, it is impossible for us to answer all these letters severally. We trust that the following explanation will answer every purpose:

A member of the Virginia delegation to Charleston and Baltimore paid a visit to Mr. Yancey, at Washington, just previous to the assemblage of the Baltimore convention. At the same time, Mr. Yancey, also received a visit from a very influential member of the New York delegation, a distinguished and ardent supporter and intimate confidant of Mr. Douglas.

The New Yorker commenced an unreserved conversation with Mr. Yancey, in the presence and hearing of a Virginia delegate, by stating that the best means to unite the democratic party and insure its success, would be to couple the names of Messrs. Douglas and Yancey on the democratic ticket. He assured Mr. Yancey that this could be effected at once, if Mr. Yancey would but consent to take the Vice-Presidential nomination, to be coupled with Mr. Douglas' nomination for the Presidency.

With a quiet smile, and his usual bland manner, Mr. Yancey promptly replied that the arrangement was one to which he could under no circumstances, consent; that "oil and water would not mix."

The New Yorker then remonstrated, reminding Mr. Yancey that politicians were frequently obliged to resort to such expedients; and assured him that the arrangement proposed, if adopted, would secure not only Mr. Yancey's personal promotion, but the ultimate ascendancy of Mr. Yancey's political views and governmental policy;—that Mr. Douglas was already so enfeebled by disease that he could scarcely live six months after the presidential election, and thus Mr. Yancey's candidacy would be sure to make him not only vice president, but very soon, president of the United States.

To all these persuasions Mr. Yancey replied with the polite and decided refusal to permit his name to be used on a ticket headed by that of Mr. Douglas.

We were approached by man after man, in the Front street convention, all of them expressing the same desire to secure southern support for the ticket by means of the vice presidential nomination of some man of the most ultra southern political views, and all were extremely perplexed by the difficulty of selecting such a man whose acceptance could be regarded as even probable.

So universal was this sentiment, that the southern men left in the convention were not only permitted by all, but requested to consult apart, as they did, to dictate, as they did, the name to be put in nomination for the vice presidency. The name of Benjamin Fitzpatrick was finally agreed on by the southern delegates, was by them proposed to the convention, and accepted by acclamation, although, a short time before, he had voted for the Davis resolution, and although it was known that he was uncommitted to accept the nomination, and might refuse, as he did refuse afterwards, to permit the use of his name.

Under all these circumstances, can any reasonable man say that an assurance from William L. Yancey, given at the last moment, even, of willingness to accept it could possibly have failed to secure for him the Vice Presidential nomination on the Douglas ticket?

The Charleston Courier of the 16th inst. is explicit upon this subject. It says:

WILLIAM L. YANCEY AND THE NOMINATION.—We are authorized to state positively and distinctly, and on responsible evidence which can be furnished to a proper demand, that the nomination for the Vice-Presidency of the Douglas ticket, was offered to William L. Yancey, of Alabama.

This offer was made through or by George N. Sanders, of New York, and with the knowledge of Stephen Arnold Douglas, and but a few days before the meeting of the adjourned convention at Baltimore.

We respectfully request exchanges interested to give extensive circulation to this assertion, in the words of, and on the authority of the Courier, as we have placed it above, and we demand in justice, that those who undertake to doubt, should put their negation in a proper form.

This will be taken as an answer to all who have questioned us concerning our former assertion of the same fact, as we had not then the distinct evidence available, although we were fully convinced before we first uttered the assertion.

THE POWER OF BIRDS TO COMMUNICATE INFORMATION TO EACH OTHER.—All birds are either daily or nightly employed in seeking out their food, and some being at times more fortunate than others, undoubtedly possess the power of communicating their success to their fraternity. I have frequently observed three or four small birds in a newly-sown field of oats, evidently local inhabitants; in a few days their numbers would be increased by hundreds of strangers from a distance. If one solitary jackdaw discovers your cherry tree, he will most assuredly introduce all acquaintances to the fruit. A rook will also, in some mysterious way, influence a large flock to share with him your early potatoes or corn, when once he discovers the desired treasure. The alarm-note of the parent will instantly silence the noisy chirping of its young; and large birds, by a peculiar motion of the wing, and manner of flight when high up in the air, and too distant to be heard, signal danger to those upon the ground unconscious of the stealthy approach of an enemy. It is to the eyes, and not their nostrils, that they owe their safety upon such occasions; and it is a mistake to suppose that they either smell you or the powder in your gun.

Gen. Dave. R. Atchison, the once notorious border ruffian, and U. S. Senator from Missouri, has been induced by the exigences of the present political crisis, to come out of his retirement and take the stump. He is for Breckinridge, and made a speech for that gentleman at Plattsburg, Clinton county, a few days ago, which is described as "eloquent and impassioned." He was very savage on Mr. Douglas.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.
Grand Display of French Millinery, &c.

MISS SHEEHAN & CO.,

WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May the 17th, 18th and 19th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of

MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as as Ribbons, Ruches, French and American Flowers in every color, style and price. Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety. Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices, in fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, both in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.

Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.

Janesville, May 8th, 1860.

N. B.—Old bonnets cleaned, bleached, pressed and made to look as good as new on short notice.

Dresses cut and made to order, one door north McKey & Bro.'s, up stairs. may9dawtf

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when expdsed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGING

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing "partial" and "one-sided" statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic, for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS and FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

DAILY GAZETTE.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

Was the Vice-Presidential Nomination on the Douglas Ticket Tendered to William L. Yancey.

We have received a large number of letters from different parts of the Union, asking exact information as to the statement, made in several public speeches by one of our editors, concerning the tender of the Vice-Presidential nomination, made by the Douglas men, to the Hon. Wm. L. Yancey. With the pressure of work now upon our hands, it is impossible for us to answer all these letters severally. We trust that the following explanation will answer every purpose.

A member of the Virginia delegation to Charleston and Baltimore paid a visit to Mr. Yancey, at Washington, just previous to the assemblage of the Baltimore convention. At the same time, Mr. Yancey, also received a visit from a very influential member of the New York delegation, a distinguished and ardent supporter and intimate confidant of Mr. Douglas.

The New Yorker commenced an unreserved conversation with Mr. Yancey, in the presence and hearing of a Virginia delegate, by stating that the best means to unite the democratic party and insure its success, would be to couple the names of Messrs. Douglas and Yancey on the democratic ticket. He assured Mr. Yancey that this could be effected at once, if Mr. Yancey would but consent to take the Vice-Presidential nomination, to be coupled with Mr. Douglas' nomination for the Presidency.

With a quiet smile, and his usual bland manner, Mr. Yancey promptly replied that the arrangement was one to which he could under no circumstances, consent; that "oil and water would not mix."

The New Yorker then remonstrated, reminding Mr. Yancey that politicians were frequently obliged to resort to such expedients; and assured him that the arrangement proposed, if adopted, would secure not only Mr. Yancey's personal promotion, but the ultimate ascendancy of Mr. Yancey's political views and governmental policy;—that Mr. Douglas was already so enfeebled by disease that he could scarcely live six months after the presidential election, and thus Mr. Yancey's candidacy would be sure to make him not only vice president, but very soon, president of the United States.

To all these persuasions Mr. Yancey replied with the polite and decided refusal to permit his name to be used on a ticket headed by that of Mr. Douglas.

We were approached by man after man, in the Front street convention, all of them expressing the same desire to secure southern support for the ticket by means of the vice presidential nomination of some man of the most ultra southern political views, and all were extremely perplexed by the difficulty of selecting such a man whose acceptance could be regarded as even probable.

So universal was this sentiment, that the southern men left in the convention were not only permitted by all, but requested to consult apart, as they did, to dictate, as they did, the name to be put in nomination for the vice presidency. The name of Benjamin Fitzpatrick was finally agreed on by the southern delegates, was by them proposed to the convention, and accepted by acclamation, although, a short time before, he had voted for the Davis resolution, and although it was known that he was uncommitted to accept the nomination, and might refuse, as he did refuse afterwards, to permit the use of his name.

Under all these circumstances, can any reasonable man say that an assurance from William L. Yancey, given at the last moment, even, of willingness to accept it could possibly have failed to secure for him the Vice Presidential nomination on the Douglas ticket?

The Charleston Courier of the 16th inst. is explicit upon this subject. It says:

WILLIAM L. YANCEY AND THE NOMINATION.—We are authorized to state positively and distinctly, and on responsible evidence which can be furnished to a proper demand, that the nomination for the Vice-Presidency of the Douglas ticket, was offered to William L. Yancey, of Alabama.

This offer was made through or by George N. Sanders, of New York, and with the knowledge of Stephen Arnold Douglas, and but a few days before the meeting of the adjourned convention at Baltimore.

We respectfully request exchanges interested to give extensive circulation to this assertion, in the words of, and on the authority of the Courier, as we have placed it above, and we demand in justice, that those who undertake to doubt, should put their negation in a proper form.

This will be taken as an answer to all who have questioned us concerning our former assertion of the same fact, as we had not then the distinct evidence available, although we were fully convinced before we first uttered the assertion.

THE POWER OF BIRDS TO COMMUNICATE INFORMATION TO EACH OTHER.—All birds are either daily or nightly employed in seeking out their food, and some being at times more fortunate than others, undoubtedly possess the power of communicating their success to their fraternity. I have frequently observed three or four small birds in a newly-sown field of oats, evidently local inhabitants; in a few days their numbers would be increased by hundreds of strangers from a distance. If one solitary jackdaw discovers your cherry tree, he will most assuredly introduce all acquaintances to the fruit. A rook will also, in some mysterious way, influence a large flock to share with him your early potatoes or corn; when once he discovers the desired treasure. The alarm-note of the parent will instantly silence the noisy chirping of its young; and large birds, by a peculiar motion of the wing, and manner of flight when high up in the air, and too distant to be heard, signal danger to those upon the ground unconscious of the stealthy approach of an enemy. It is to the eyes, and not their nostrils, that they owe their safety upon such occasions; and it is a mistake to suppose that they either smell you or the powder in your gun.

Gen. Dave. R. Atchison, the once notorious border ruffian, and U. S. Senator from Missouri, has been induced by the exigences of the present political crisis, to come out of his retirement and take the stump. He is for Breckinridge, and made a speech for that gentleman at Plattsburg, Clinton county, a few days ago, which is described as "eloquent and impassioned." He was very savage on Mr. Douglas.

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city.

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Rubleand Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

☞ All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

Was the Vice-Presidential Nomination on the Douglas Ticket Tendered to William L. Yancey.

We have received a large number of letters from different parts of the Union, asking exact information as to the statement, made in several public speeches by one of our editors, concerning the tender of the Vice-Presidential nomination, made by the Douglas men, to the Hon. Wm. L. Yancey. With the pressure of work now upon our hands, it is impossible for us to answer all these letters severally. We trust that the following explanation will answer every purpose:

A member of the Virginia delegation to Charleston and Baltimore paid a visit to Mr. Yancey, at Washington, just previous to the assemblage of the Baltimore convention. At the same time, Mr. Yancey, also received a visit from a very influential member of the New York delegation, a distinguished and ardent supporter and intimate confidant of Mr. Douglas.

The New Yorker commenced an unreserved conversation with Mr. Yancey, in the presence and hearing of a Virginia delegate, by stating that the best means to unite the democratic party and insure its success, would be to couple the names of Messrs. Douglas and Yancey on the democratic ticket. He assured Mr. Yancey that this could be effected at once, if Mr. Yancey would but consent to take the Vice-Presidential nomination, to be coupled with Mr. Douglas' nomination for the Presidency.

With a quiet smile, and his usual bland manner, Mr. Yancey promptly replied that the arrangement was one to which he could under no circumstances, consent; that "oil and water would not mix."

The New Yorker then remonstrated, reminding Mr. Yancey that politicians were frequently obliged to resort to such expedients; and assured him that the arrangement proposed, if adopted, would secure not only Mr. Yancey's personal promotion, but the ultimate ascendancy of Mr. Yancey's political views and governmental policy;—that Mr. Douglas was already so enfeebled by disease that he could scarcely live six months after the presidential election, and thus Mr. Yancey's candidacy would be sure to make him not only vice president, but very soon, president of the United States.

To all these persuasions Mr. Yancey replied with the polite and decided refusal to permit his name to be used on a ticket headed by that of Mr. Douglas.

We were approached by man after man, in the Front street convention, all of them expressing the same desire to secure southern support for the ticket by means of the vice presidential nomination of some man of the most ultra southern political views, and all were extremely perplexed by the difficulty of selecting such a man whose acceptance could be regarded as even probable.

So universal was this sentiment, that the southern men left in the convention were not only permitted by all, but requested to consult apart, as they did, to dictate, as they did, the name to be put in nomination for the vice presidency. The name of Benjamin Fitzpatrick was finally agreed on by the southern delegates, was by them proposed to the convention, and accepted by acclamation, although, a short time before, he had voted for the Davis resolution, and although it was known that he was uncommitted to accept the nomination, and might refuse, as he did refuse afterwards, to permit the use of his name.

Under all these circumstances, can any reasonable man say that an assurance from William L. Yancey, given at the last moment, even, of willingness to accept it could possibly have failed to secure for him the Vice-Presidential nomination on the Douglas ticket?

The Charleston Courier of the 16th inst. is explicit upon this subject. It says:

WILLIAM L. YANCEY AND THE NOMINATION.—We are authorized to state positively and distinctly, and on responsible evidence which can be furnished to a proper demand, that the nomination for the Vice-Presidency of the Douglas ticket, was offered to William L. Yancey, of Alabama.

This offer was made through or by George N. Sanders, of New York, and with the knowledge of Stephen Arnold Douglas, and but a few days before the meeting of the adjourned convention at Baltimore.

We respectfully request exchanges interested to give extensive circulation to this assertion, in the words of, and on the authority of the Courier, as we have placed it above, and we demand in justice, that those who undertake to doubt, should put their negation in a proper form.

This will be taken as an answer to all who have questioned us concerning our former assertion of the same fact, as we had not then the distinct evidence available, although we were fully convinced before we first uttered the assertion.

THE POWER OF BIRDS TO COMMUNICATE INFORMATION TO EACH OTHER.—All birds are either daily or nightly employed in seeking out their food, and some being at times more fortunate than others, undoubtedly possess the power of communicating their success to their fraternity. I have frequently observed three or four small birds in a newly-sown field of oats, evidently local inhabitants; in a few days their numbers would be increased by hundreds of strangers from a distance. If one solitary jackdaw discovers your cherry tree, he will most assuredly introduce all acquaintances to the fruit. A rook will also, in some mysterious way, influence a large flock to share with him your early potatoes or corn, when once he discovers the desired treasure. The alarm-note of the parent will instantly silence the noisy chirping of its young; and large birds, by a peculiar motion of the wing, and manner of flight when high up in the air, and too distant to be heard, signal danger to those upon the ground unconscious of the stealthy approach of an enemy. It is to the eyes, and not their nostrils, that they owe their safety upon such occasions; and it is a mistake to suppose that they either smell you or the powder in your gun.

Gen. Dave. R. Atchison, the once notorious border ruffian, and U. S. Senator from Missouri, has been induced by the exigences of the present political crisis, to come out of his retirement and take the stump. He is for Breckinridge, and made a speech for that gentleman at Plattsburg, Clinton county, a few days ago, which is described as "eloquent and impassioned." He was very savage on Mr. Douglas.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.
Grand Display of French Millinery, &c.
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.,

WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May the 17th, 18th and 19th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of

MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as Ribbons, Laces, French and American Flowers in every color, style and price. Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety. Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices. In fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, both in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.
Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.
Janesville, May 8th, 1860.

N. B.—Old bonnets cleaned, bleached, pressed and made to look as good as new on short notice.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.
Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone
of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN
of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

☞ All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

The True Issue.

I believe this government cannot endure permanently half slave and half free. I do not expect the Union to be dissolved—I do not expect the house to fall—but I do expect it will cease to be divided. It will become all one thing, or all the other. Either the opponents of slavery will arrest the further spread of it, and place it where the public mind shall rest in the belief that it is in the course of ultimate extinction; or its advocates will push it forward, till it shall become alike lawful in all the states, old as well as new—north as well as south. —Abraham Lincoln.

WE MUST PREVENT THE REVIVAL OF THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE, AND THE ENACTING BY CONGRESS OF A TERRITORIAL SLAVE CODE. WE MUST PREVENT EITHER OF THESE THINGS BEING DONE BY CONGRESS OR COURTS. THE PEOPLE OF THESE UNITED STATES ARE THE RIGHTFUL MASTERS OF BOTH CONGRESS AND THE COURTS, NOT TO OVERTHROW THE CONSTITUTION, BUT TO OVERTHROW THE MEN WHO PERVERT THE CONSTITUTION.—Lincoln.

New York.

As the vote of New York will decide the election of President, all information as to the result of that vote is of absorbing interest throughout the Union. We have, ourselves, no doubt that the state will be carried by Lincoln. We do not believe that the arrangements made by party leaders for a fusion of all the elements of opposition to the republicans will be carried out by the masses of the opposing parties.—All reports from republican sources concur in confirming this belief, and the admissions of some of our opponents strengthen it. Among the latter is the following from the New York Herald:

"The day for the redemption of New York has gone by. She will vote for Lincoln, and if by a majority equal to the whole population of Kansas, it will not surprise us. There is no genuine fusion between the Breckinridge and Douglas factions. The breach has widened between them since these late elections."

The widening of the breach between the Douglas and Breckinridge factions is a natural result of the circumstances under which the candidate of both factions is in the field. The original division would never have been permitted if it could have been prevented. True, there is no essential disagreement on principles, much talk as there is about it, and there would probably be little difference in policy if either could obtain the control of the government. The real trouble is a war between men and factions, having in view solely the disposition of the patronage of the government. The difficulty is a family quarrel, and all experience attests that these quarrels are more embittered and the contestants less easily reconciled than any other.

But besides this general truth, the peculiar relations of the parties aggravate the difficulty. The advantages and benefits of a successful combination would be all on one side, and that side the weakest in the controversy. Under no possible circumstances can Douglas, who undeniably has the largest part of the democratic vote, reap any personal benefit from the election of the fusion ticket, and the other parties in the combination are only using the friends of Douglas to get the election into congress where Mr. Douglas would be slaughtered with more despatch and less mercy than in the Charleston convention. Indeed, this purpose is openly avowed, with more frankness than discretion, and with an insolence equal to the frankness. The Schenectady Reflector of the 10th inst., says:

OUR ELECTORAL TICKET.—To-day this paper raises the union ticket to its masthead. The gentlemen who wanted fusion have got more than they bargained for, because if this state is carried for anybody save Lincoln, Joseph Lane is the next president of the United States, and as for the Douglas and Bell electors, the Breckinridge men are crushing them. If they are satisfied to be used, we are willing to use them. We will vote the union ticket entire, and hope our fellow democrats will do the same without scratching. Look out that the Douglas-Bell men swallow their own dose. To the national democracy it is harmless—to the Douglas and Bell interest it is a swift poison.

Having defined our position, we leave the question to the people. Swallow the mixture, and make those who prepared it swallow it, for it will kill them politically ever after.

We have no idea that the friends of Douglas will permit the success of such a scheme, even if it were in their power; and we have as little idea that they have the power to perfect it if they have the disposition. New York is as certain for Lincoln as any future unsettled event can be; and with New York, he is just as certain of being elected to administer the government during the next presidential term.

THE DEMONSTRATION AT MILWAUKEE.—Having returned from Milwaukee at so late an hour as to be unable to give a description of the demonstration last night in honor of Carl Schurz, we can only say that it was estimated that there were 3000 torches in the procession, and that it was one of the most grand and brilliant ovations ever seen in the northwest.

We have a candidate of whom we are proud; and against whose good name even the Gazette will not dare to wag its tongue. Put your windy "when I was in the New York legislature" candidate to his best paces, gentleman, for the democracy have a nag on the course who will show him a clean pair of heels on the 6th of November next, or we are much mistaken.—Daily Dem.

The Gazette is very apt to adapt its treatment to the subject under charge. We freely admit that the "democracy" have experienced the unexpected good fortune of somehow inducing a gentleman to take a nomination at their hands whose personal character is irreproachable, and whose social standing entitles him to respect. The task of assailing personally and vituperatively a man who in all the qualities which constitute a good citizen and a well-bred gentleman is the equal of Mr. Richardson, we leave to the "Badwabs" who find in the Democrat a congenial and willing medium to exhibit their malice and cowardice.

We can find in Mr. Richardson's political affiliations and his candidacy of a party which has been thrust from power for its official abuses and corruptions, and subserviency to the demands of slavery, sufficien reasons for our own opposition, and sufficient cause for the opposition of every republican in the city, without imitating the bad example tendered by the defamers of Mr. Graham. We think, moreover, these reasons will be controlling enough to leave Mr. Richardson in a position to show "a clean pair of heels" to his political friends and not to his opponents. For the last five years, we have heard just such boasts before the election, over every democratic assembly nomination in this city, and at every election we have witnessed the signal defeat of the candidate who was to beat the republican nominee. So bring on your nag, and let us see his paces.

GOOD NEWS FROM THE NORTH.—The Madison Journal of last evening says:—"Gov. Randall returned from a trip north, last evening. He had a large and enthusiastic meeting at Green Bay, and reports Sloan's prospects as number one.

Secretary Harvey returned also last night, from a trip into Grant county, where he went at Mr. Hanchett's request, to fill his appointments. The republicans of Grant county are talking about giving 1,600 majority for 'Honest Old Abe.'"

THE LEGISLATURE.—We advise the republican rivals for the United States senatorship to not count with any very great certainty on the prospect that anybody of that stripe will be the lucky man. "The best laid schemes," we are told with almost the unction of prophecy, "gang aft aglee."—There is no sure thing that the republicans will have the legislature, at all. They may have the senate, but the few changes likely to take place, of which we are already advised, are enough to make the assembly close, if not to entirely change its complexion. We trust these gentlemen will not become so excited on the subject before the election as to be severely and deeply disappointed if all their chances are destroyed by the result.—Madison Argus.

This suggestion, though it comes from from an opponent, is timely. No intelligent man even hopes to give Douglas the state, or make any inroads upon the county officers in established republican counties. In this congressional district, at least, the election of a republican congressman is a foregone conclusion. The effort, to which everything else will be sacrificed, is to secure a majority in the legislature, and thus elect a democratic U. S. senator. And, perhaps, the republican party is not out of danger in this feature of the election. Whatever complications are made, and whatever stratagems may be resorted to, will have this object in view. What democrats are so anxious to accomplish, republicans should be zealous to avert. Let every republican then vote for republican candidates for the legislature, and resist every appeal, urged by whatever considerations it may be, to vote for democratic candidates. One vote in the legislature may possibly determine the majority there, and the consequent ability to elect the senator to be chosen next winter.

VALUE OF MONEY.—It is a growing impression in Wall street, writes the New York correspondent of the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, that money will go a begging by the 1st of the month, at five per cent., and the impression is shared by private lenders as well as the banks. The business activity of the autumn, in most departments, is at an end; the specie shipments to Europe have stopped, while the California remittances are undiminished. The supply on all hands, therefore, is likely to be, as it is at present, considerably in excess of the demand.

ALL EXPLAINED.—It is now said that what has recently been chronicled as an earthquake, in various parts of the country, was merely the reverberations of the voices that have just spoken death and defeat to the democracy in Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio.—Buffalo Express.

WHY YANCEY KILLED HIS UNCLE.—As the murderer of his uncle is teaching democracy in the north, it may be well enough for our readers to know something of his character. The murder story is told as follows by the Knoxville (Tenn.,) Whig:

The fact that W. L. Yancey killed his uncle, Dr. Earle, of South Caralina, has been stated in general terms, but the details have not been given. Dr. Earle lived one mile and a half west of Greenville, where his widow still resides if alive. A few hundred yards distant is an old field, sometimes used for precticing on horseback, but more frequently resorted to as a muster ground.—This was the occasion of a drill muster, when Dr. Earle's son, about ten years old, went to the ground, as all boys seek to do, and during their wheeling and turning, the boy got into the way. Yancey ordered him to get out of the way, but the boy in his confusion, got more and more in the way, whereupon Yancey lashed him most unmercifully with a horse whip. Dr. Earle was not at home, but on returning home through town, a friend told him how cruelly Yancey had treated his son. Yancey told him that the boy had been very insolent, and that he had slapped his jaws. Dr. Earle replied that he had served him right. When Dr. Earle reached home and learned the facts, and found that Yancey had lied to him, he returned to Greenville in search of him. Yancey knowing the pluck of Dr. Earle, and that he would be detected in the falsehood, preparing himself for a fight. Dr. Earle found Yancey on Dr. Crittenden's porch, and in marching upon him was shot down by him with a pistol. These are the facts as we have them from one born and reared in that vicinity. The fact that he was convicted upon trial and imprisoned, and afterwards became the subject of executive clemency, corroborates the truth of this version.

OUTRAGEOUS ROBBERY.—One of the most daring assaults and robbery ever committed in this city, was perpetrated on Thursday evening last.

Mr. M. B. Mead, well known to our readers as an old citizen of Racine, was on his way up Main street to Mr. Tuckerman's residence, about half-past eight o'clock, in the evening above mentioned, when just by Mr. John Dickson's he passed three men whom, on account of the darkness, he could not recognize. Almost instantly his arms were pinioned to his side by a powerful grasp, and at the same time something placed over his mouth to prevent his giving the alarm. For some minutes he struggled to get away, but was overpowered, thrown on the ground and kicked brutally, until from sheer exhaustion he lay still, when the scoundrels took his watch, a gold one and valuable, and his pocket book, which fortunately contained nothing but some notes and papers, after which they left him. Mr. Mead was severely bruised all over his body, and could scarcely reach Mr. Tuckerman's residence. No trace of the men has been found.—Racine Journal.

AMERICAN SENSATIONS—THE JAPANESE TOMMY.—Ever and anon, the newspapers publish a letter from the Japanese Tommy, in his peculiar style of English and orthography, in which he gives accounts of himself and his progress, of his recollections of America, its "butiful ladis, and the navy schule at Anaplish," which he intends some day to enter. It is evident that Tommy has not learned much more of our character than our language during his American trip. The innocent youth supposes that the craziness which the Japanese visit developed in the United States is chronic, and that we are all regarding them with the same frenzied enthusiasm that marked their progress through the United States. Poor fellow!—It seems strange enough, when in our sober senses, we look back, and think of the enormous excitement which transformed these yellow-skinned, narrow-headed, ferret-eyed and flat-footed barbarians into objects of popular admiration, and hardly know, we must admit, whether the people who made gods of such abominations, or the deities themselves, are the more absurd and irrational. But the Great Eastern and the Prince of Wales have long since obliterated every trace of the Japanese furor, and Tommy may rely upon it, that if he should come back to the United States, he might find it a more difficult matter to come within gunshot of a midshipman's berth at "Anaplish" than he seems to imagine. If it is of any consolation to him, however, he may be assured that even his great rival, the Prince of Wales, will be as quickly forgotten as himself, except by the lucky maidens who have had the honor of his hand in the dance, and who may be possibly indulging visions which will keep them for a long time in a state of single blessedness.—Richmond (Va) Dispatch.

THE UNCONSCIOUS DESTINY OF MAN.—In a recent sermon Henry Ward Beecher said:

The thread that goes into the loom does not know what it wants, or where it goes, or what it is forming. It follows blindly the shuttle, and comes out at last on the surface of the shining silk, in vine and leaf, and blossom, or some figure. So we are being led in a way and by an influence which at the time we cannot interpret. If we have faith that God leads us, and follow him implicitly, these things which we cannot understand, work themselves out in our life.

We are in bondage of old superstition, and the worship of nine hundred and ninety-nine churches in a thousand is yet tinged with the somberness illustrative of the heathen element of fear. The lightness, the gaiety, the cheer of true worship, is but little known among men. What that the hilarity of children is, breaking away from masters and schools, and romping home to overpower the household with joy, such is to be the worship of God's children. The name of father ought not to make any man tremble that is a child.

The work which God appoints for every man, is an indestructible work, whose foundations are in earth, whose superstructure goes up in Heaven; and it is to be "eternal in the heavens." There is nothing that man does out of himself, however glorious it may be, that can be compared to that work which is going on in his own soul.

BANK LETTERS.—Our belief in the infallibility of our banking friends is, we confess, slightly skaken, in view of the fact that over one thousand letters a year arrive at the New York post office, plainly addressed "New York," which belong to cashiers in other cities and towns, as is ascertained by consulting a list of cashiers in the United States, kept in the office for reference, and to enable the clerks to forward these stray missives to their proper destination. And a similar state of things exists in other large cities.

HORRORS OF THE SLAVE TRADE.—The scene on board the slave ship Erie, when captured, is beyond all description. On opening the hatches, which were all fastened down from one end of the deck to the other, with no light or air except what came in through side holes or ports—being almost as dark as a cellar—the stench which came up was intolerable. The negroes were stowed between decks, 3 or 4 feet apart stark naked, sitting down upon the floor with their legs apart, with another sitting between—"spoon fashion."

"What have the republicans done?" asks a doughface exchange, impudently.

Well, as far as heard from, they have just beaten the democrats terribly, and are in a fair way of beaten them entirely.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Important News from Europe.

By the arrival of the City of Washington, the details of a great victory by Garibaldi has been received. The battle was fought on the Volturno.

A brigade of Germans was cut off from the main body of the Nepolitan army and driven to the mountains. The Garibaldians took 5,000 prisoners, and it was estimated that the Nepolitans had 3,000 killed and wounded. The loss of the Garibaldians was stated at 2,000 men. The Royalists subsequently made a sortie from Capua for the relief of the German brigade, but were repulsed. The King of Naples and his brothers were present at the battle.

It was reported that three of the great powers had protested against the entry of Sardinia into Naples. Mazzini had entered Naples at the request of the pro-dictator. Advices from the papal states indicate no change in the state of affairs there. The Pope remains at Rome. Gen. Lamoriciere had returned to France. The French had occupied numerous places near Rome. It was reported that a third division will be sent from France to Rome.

Military movements on a vast scale were reported in Austria.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 25.

A horrible accident occurred at 12 o'clock this morning at Fort Griffith, between Rillston and Wilkesboro, at the Pennsylvania Coal Co.'s works. A car containing twelve miners started for the mine down a slope of 1500 feet, when about half way the rope broke and the car was precipitated to the bottom. Eight men were instantly killed, two are not expected to live, the balance were saved by jumping from the car.

LINCOLN IN MARYLAND.—Ex-Governor Francis Thomas, whom the democracy have often honored, takes bold ground against the southern fanatics. So far from the election of Lincoln giving the south cause for dissolution, Gov. Thomas, though a slaveholder, argues to the contrary. In a speech at Hagerstown, a few days since, he said:

"We have nothing to fear from the election of Mr. Lincoln. All formerly stood upon his platform. No one ever doubted the right of congress to legislate for the territories. He cared not what a man's abstract opinions were; we had had many free-soilers in the presidential chair. Jefferson was a rank free-soiler. Madison and Monroe were both free-soilers. He knew Mr. Fillmore well; and a better president we never had. Mr. Fillmore would have responded Yes, to every question put to Mr. Lincoln. Mr. Clay was an out and out free-soiler. 'So help me God,' said Mr. Clay, 'so help me God, I will never vote for the admission of slavery into any territorry where it does not now exist.'"

PRESS REMITTANCES.—The aggregate remittances received through the mails yearly by the proprietors of the New York daily and weekly newspapers, amount to five millions of dollars, as near as can be ascertained from data furnished by the proprietors themselves, in responses to inquiries made on this subject. This sum represents approximately the pecuniary interest of the New York press alone in the efficient working of our postal system. Add to this the immense number of remittances which are every day passing through the mails to the almost innumerable newspaper establishments both of city and country, and we shall have some adequate idea of the important duties which rest upon the employees of the postoffice department, considering the subject in its financial aspect.

HOW THE BAPTISTS GROW.—The American Baptist Almanac for 1861, has its accustomed interesting survey of denominational facts. Its footings show that there are in the United States 12,371 regular Baptist churches, 7,837 ordained ministers, 1,115 licentiates, and 1,020,442 communicants. These figures do not include the irregular Baptists, of whom, including the Campbellites, there are not less than half a million. Virginia has the largest number of regular Baptists of any one state in the Union, the aggregate being 107,283. New York stands next, at 92,873, and there are four other states, Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky and North Carolina, which have more than 50,000. The accessions to the denominational strength in 1859, are reported to be 72,080 baptisms, 246 ordinations, 180 new churches constituted, and 70 new meeting houses built. These are some of the hopeful statements of the Almanac, and every family should have a copy of it.

OLD CONGRESSMAN.—The venerable Andrew Stewart, who has just been elected to congress from Pennsylvania, has served sixteen years in the house of representatives, having first entered it in 1821. He will not find in either house a single man who was a member when he first entered public life. The only other member of the next house, who has served as long as Mr. Stewart, is Hon. John S. Phelps, of Missouri, who was first elected in 1844, and has been returned at every succeeding election. Mr. Stewart has been in retirement since 1857.

A VALUABLE GARMENT.—The following story comes to us on good authority: Some years ago a criminal officer was sent to N. Y. from a city in New England to bring back a fugitive from justice, who, as the train was proceeding through Rhode Island, jumped from the cars and made his escape. A great-coat which he left was appropriated by the officer, and carried home, where it was hung up, and only worn once or twice by him. The officer died a few weeks ago; and his widow while brushing the overcoat in question preparatory to its being laid by, noticed the covering of a button somewhat torn. On scratching it with her finger nail she discovered that the button-mould was a very precious article indeed; for it turned out to be a gold eagle—or ten dollar gold piece. On examination every one of the twelve buttons on the breast of the coat were found of similar value, besides two on the skirts—the total amount discovered being $140. We have little doubt that the eyes of the widow were too full for tears about that time—that is, they stuck out too far to furnish favorable receptacles for the lachrymal fluid.—Hartford Post.

The True Issue.

I believe this government cannot endure permanently half slave and half free. I do not expect the Union to be dissolved—I do not expect the house to fall—but I do expect it will cease to be divided. It will become all one thing, or all the other. Either the opponents of slavery will arrest the further spread of it, and place it where the public mind shall rest in the belief that it is in the course of ultimate extinction, or its advocates will push it forward, till it shall become alike lawful in all the states, old as well as new—north as well as south. —Abraham Lincoln.

WE MUST PREVENT THE REVIVAL OF THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE, AND THE ENACTING BY CONGRESS OF A TERRITORIAL SLAVE CODE. WE MUST PREVENT EITHER OF THESE THINGS BEING DONE BY CONGRESS OR COURTS. THE PEOPLE OF THESE UNITED STATES ARE THE RIGHTFUL MASTERS OF BOTH CONGRESS AND THE COURTS, NOT TO OVERTHROW THE CONSTITUTION, BUT TO OVERTHROW THE MEN WHO PERVERT THE CONSTITUTION.—Lincoln.

New York.

As the vote of New York will decide the election of President, all information as to the result of that vote is of absorbing interest throughout the Union. We have, ourselves, no doubt that the state will be carried by Lincoln. We do not believe that the arrangements made by party leaders for a fusion of all the elements of opposition to the republicans will be carried out by the masses of the opposing parties.—All reports from republican sources concur in confirming this belief, and the admissions of some of our opponents strengthen it. Among the latter is the following from the New York Herald:

"The day for the redemption of New York has gone by. She will vote for Lincoln, and if by a majority equal to the whole population of Kansas, it will not surprise us. There is no genuine fusion between the Breckinridge and Douglas factions. The breach has widened between them since these late elections."

The widening of the breach between the Douglas and Breckinridge factions is a natural result of the circumstances under which the candidate of both factions is in the field. The original division would never have been permitted if it could have been prevented. True, there is no essential disagreement on principles, much talk as there is about it, and there would probably be little difference in policy if either could obtain the control of the government. The real trouble is a war between men and factions, having in view solely the disposition of the patronage of the government. The difficulty is a family quarrel, and all experience attests that these quarrels are more embittered and the contestants less easily reconciled than any other.

But besides this general truth, the peculiar relations of the parties aggravate the difficulty. The advantages and benefits of a successful combination would be all on one side, and that side the weakest in the controversy. Under no possible circumstances can Douglas, who undeniably has the largest part of the democratic vote, reap any personal benefit from the election of the fusion ticket, and the other parties in the combination are only using the friends of Douglas to get the election into congress where Mr. Douglas would be slaughtered with more despatch and less mercy than in the Charleston convention. Indeed, this purpose is openly avowed, with more frankness than discretion, and with an insolence equal to the frankness. The Schenectady Reflector of the 10th inst., says:

OUR ELECTORAL TICKET.—To-day this paper raises the union ticket to its masthead. The gentlemen who wanted fusion have got more than they bargained for, because if this state is carried for anybody save Lincoln, Joseph Lane is the next president of the United States, and as for the Douglas and Bell electors, the Breckinridge men are crushing them. If they are satisfied to be used, we are willing to use them. We will vote the union ticket entire, and hope our fellow democrats will do the same without scratching. Look out that the Douglas-Bell men swallow their own dose. To the national democracy it is harmless—to the Douglas and Bell interest it is a swift poison.

Having defined our position, we leave the question to the people. Swallow the mixture, and make those who prepared it swallow it, for it will kill them politically ever after.

We have no idea that the friends of Douglas will permit the success of such a scheme, even if it were in their power; and we have as little idea that they have the power to perfect it if they have the disposition. New York is as certain for Lincoln as any future unsettled event can be; and with New York, he is just as certain of being elected to administer the government during the next presidential term.

THE DEMONSTRATION AT MILWAUKEE.—Having returned from Milwaukee at so late an hour as to be unable to give a description of the demonstration last night in honor of Carl Schurz, we can only say that it was estimated that there were 3000 torches in the procession, and that it was one of the most grand and brilliant ovations ever seen in the northwest.

We have a candidate of whom we are proud; and against whose good name even the Gazette will not dare to wag its tongue. Put your windy "when I was in the New York legislature" candidate to his best paces, gentleman, for the democracy have a nag on the course who will show him a clean pair of heels on the 6th of November next, or we are much mistaken.—Daily Dem.

The Gazette is very apt to adapt its treatment to the subject under charge. We freely admit that the "democracy" have experienced the unexpected good fortune of somehow inducing a gentleman to take a nomination at their hands whose personal character is irreproachable, and whose social standing entitles him to respect. The task of assailing personally and vituperatively a man who in all the qualities which constitute a good citizen and a well-bred gentleman is the equal of Mr. Richardson, we leave to the "Badwahs" who find in the Democrat a congenial and willing medium to exhibit their malice and cowardice.

We can find in Mr. Richardson's political affiliations and his candidacy of a party which has been thrust from power for its official abuses and corruptions, and subserviency to the demands of slavery, sufficien reasons for our own opposition, and sufficient cause for the opposition of every republican in the city, without imitating the bad example tendered by the defamers of Mr. Graham. We think, moreover, these reasons will be controlling enough to leave Mr. Richardson in a position to show "a clean pair of heels" to his political friends and not to his opponents. For the last five years, we have heard just such boasts before the election, over every democratic assembly nomination in this city, and at every election we have witnessed the signal defeat of the candidate who was to beat the republican nominee. So bring on your nag, and let us see his paces.

GOOD NEWS FROM THE NORTH.—The Madison Journal of last evening says:—"Gov. Randall returned from a trip north, last evening. He had a large and enthusiastic meeting at Green Bay, and reports Sloan's prospects as number one.

Secretary Harvey returned also last night, from a trip into Grant county, where he went at Mr. Hanchett's request, to fill his appointments. The republicans of Grant county are talking about giving 1,600 majority for 'Honest Old Abe.'"

THE LEGISLATURE.—We advise the republican rivals for the United States senatorship to not count with any very great certainty on the prospect that anybody of that stripe will be the lucky man. "The best laid schemes," we are told with almost the unction of prophecy, "gang aft aglee."—There is no sure thing that the republicans will have the legislature, at all. They may have the senate, but the few changes likely to take place, of which we are already advised, are enough to make the assembly close, if not to entirely change its complexion. We trust these gentlemen will not become so excited on the subject before the election as to be severely and deeply disappointed if all their chances are destroyed by the result.—Madison Argus.

This suggestion, though it comes from from an opponent, is timely. No intelligent man even hopes to give Douglas the state, or make any inroads upon the county officers in established republican counties. In this congressional district, at least, the election of a republican congressman is a foregone conclusion. The effort, to which everything else will be sacrificed, is to secure a majority in the legislature, and thus elect a democratic U. S. senator. And, perhaps, the republican party is not out of danger in this feature of the election. Whatever complications are made, and whatever stratagems may be resorted to, will have this object in view. What democrats are so anxious to accomplish, republicans should be zealous to avert. Let every republican then vote for republican candidates for the legislature, and resist every appeal, urged by whatever considerations it may be, to vote for democratic candidates. One vote in the legislature may possibly determine the majority there, and the consequent ability to elect the senator to be chosen next winter.

VALUE OF MONEY.—It is a growing impression in Wall street, writes the New York correspondent of the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, that money will go a begging by the 1st of the month, at five per cent., and the impression is shared by private lenders as well as the banks. The business activity of the autumn, in most departments, is at an end; the specie shipments to Europe have stopped, while the California remittances are undiminished. The supply on all hands, therefore, is likely to be, as it is at present, considerably in excess of the demand.

ALL EXPLAINED.—It is now said that what has recently been chronicled as an earthquake, in various parts of the country, was merely the reverberations of the voices that have just spoken death and defeat to the democracy in Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio.—Buffalo Express.

WHY YANCEY KILLED HIS UNCLE.—As the murderer of his uncle is teaching democracy in the north, it may be well enough for our readers to know something of his character! The murder story is told as follows by the Knoxville (Tenn.,) Whig:

The fact that W. L. Yancey killed his uncle, Dr. Earle, of South Caralina, has been stated in general terms, but the details have not been given. Dr. Earle lived one mile and a half west of Greenville, where his widow still resides if alive. A few hundred yards distant is an old field, sometimes used for practicing on horseback, but more frequently resorted to as a muster ground.—This was the occasion of a drill muster, when Dr. Earle's son, about ten years old, went to the ground, as all boys seek to do, and during their wheeling and turning, the boy got into the way. Yancey ordered him to get out of the way, but the boy in his confusion, got more and more in the way, whereupon Yancey lashed him most unmercifully with a horse whip. Dr. Earle was not at home, but on returning home through town, a friend told him how cruelly Yancey had treated his son. Yancey told him that the boy had been very insolent, and that he had slapped his jaws. Dr. Earle replied that he had served him right. When Dr. Earle reached home and learned the facts, and found that Yancey had lied to him, he returned to Greenville in search of him. Yancey knowing the pluck of Dr. Earle, and that he would be detected in the falsehood, preparing himself for a fight. Dr. Earle found Yancey on Dr. Crittenden's porch, and in marching upon him was shot down by him with a pistol. These are the facts as we have them from one born and reared in that vicinity. The fact that he was convicted upon trial and imprisoned, and afterwards became the subject of executive clemency, corroborates the truth of this version.

OUTRAGEOUS ROBBERY.—One of the most daring assaults and robbery ever committed in this city, was perpetrated on Thursday evening last.

Mr. M. B. Mead, well known to our readers as an old citizen of Racine, was on his way up Main street to Mr. Tuckerman's residence, about half-past eight o'clock, in the evening above mentioned, when just by Mr. John Dickson's he passed three men whom, on account of the darkness, he could not recognize. Almost instantly his arms were pinioned to his side by a powerful grasp, and at the same time something placed over his mouth to prevent his giving the alarm. For some minutes he struggled to get away, but was overpowered, thrown on the ground and kicked brutally, until from sheer exhaustion he lay still, when the scoundrels took his watch, a gold one and valuable, and his pocket book, which fortunately contained nothing but some notes and papers, after which they left him. Mr. Mead was severely bruised all over his body, and could scarcely reach Mr. Tuckerman's residence. No trace of the men has been found.—Racine Journal.

AMERICAN SENSATIONS—THE JAPANESE TOMMY.—Ever and anon, the newspapers publish a letter from the Japanese Tommy, in his peculiar style of English and orthography, in which he gives accounts of himself and his progress, of his recollections of America, its "butiful ladis, and the navy schule at Anaplish," which he intends some day to enter. It is evident that Tommy has not learned much more of our character than our language during his American trip. The innocent youth supposes that the craziness which the Japanese visit developed in the United States is chronic, and that we are all regarding them with the same frenzied enthusiasm that marked their progress through the United States. Poor fellow!—It seems strange enough, when in our sober senses, we look back, and think of the enormous excitement which transformed these yellow-skinned, narrow-headed, ferret-eyed and flat-footed barbarians into objects of popular admiration, and hardly know, we must admit, whether the people who made gods of such abominations, or the deities themselves, are the more absurd and irrational. But the Great Eastern and the Prince of Wales have long since obliterated every trace of the Japanese furor, and Tommy may rely upon it, that if he should come back to the United States, he might find it a more difficult matter to come within gunshot of a midshipman's berth at "Anaplish" than he seems to imagine. If it is of any consolation to him, however, he may be assured that even his great rival, the Prince of Wales, will be as quickly forgotten as himself, except by the lucky maidens who have had the honor of his hand in the dance, and who may be possibly indulging visions which will keep them for a long time in a state of single blessedness.—Richmond (Va) Dispatch.

THE UNCONSCIOUS DESTINY OF MAN.—In a recent sermon Henry Ward Beecher said:

The thread that goes into the loom does not know what it wants, or where it goes, or what it is forming. It follows blindly the shuttle, and comes out at last on the surface of the shining silk, in vine and leaf, and blossom, or some figure. So we are being led in a way and by an influence which at the time we cannot interpret. If we have faith that God leads us, and follow him implicitly, these things which we cannot understand, work themselves out in our life.

We are in bondage of old superstition, and the worship of nine hundred and ninety-nine churches in a thousand is yet tinged with the somberness illustrative of the heathen element of fear. The lightness, the gaiety, the cheer of true worship, is but little known among men. What that the hiliarty of children is, breaking away from masters and schools, and romping home to overpower the household with joy, such is to be the worship of God's children. The name of father ought not to make any man tremble that is a child.

The work which God appoints for every man, is an indestructible work, whose foundations are in earth, whose superstructure goes up in Heaven; and it is to be "eternal in the heavens." There is nothing that man does out of himself, however glorious it may be, that can be compared to that work which is going on in his own soul.

BANK LETTERS.—Our belief in the infallibility of our banking friends is, we confess, slightly skaken, in view of the fact that over one thousand letters a year arrive at the New York post office, plainly addressed "New York," which belong to cashiers in other cities and towns, as is ascertained by consulting a list of cashiers in the United States, kept in the office for reference, and to enable the clerks to forward these stray missives to their proper destination. And a similar state of things exists in other large cities.

HORRORS OF THE SLAVE TRADE.—The scene on board the slave ship Erie, when captured, is beyond all description. On opening the hatches, which were all fastened down from one end of the deck to the other, with no light or air except what came in through side holes or ports—being almost as dark as a cellar—the stench which came up was intolerable. The negroes were stowed between decks, 3 or 4 feet apart stark naked, sitting down upon the floor with their legs apart, with another sitting between—"spoon fashion."

"What have the republicans done?" asks a doughface exchange, impudently.

Well, as far as heard from, they have just beaten the democrats terribly, and are in a fair way of beaten them entirely.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Important News from Europe.

By the arrival of the City of Washington, the details of a great victory by Garibaldi has been received. The battle was fought on the Volturno.

A brigade of Germans was cut off from the main body of the Nepolitan army and driven to the mountains. The Garibaldians took 5,000 prisoners, and it was estimated that the Nepolitans had 3,000 killed and wounded. The loss of the Garibaldians was stated at 2,000 men. The Royalists subsequently made a sortie from Capua for the relief of the German brigade, but were repulsed. The King of Naples and his brothers were present at the battle.

It was reported that three of the great powers had protested against the entry of Sardinia into Naples. Mazzini had entered Naples at the request of the pro-dictator. Advices from the papal states indicate no change in the state of affairs there. The Pope remains at Rome. Gen. Lamoriciere had returned to France. The French had occupied numerous places near Rome. It was reported that a third division will be sent from France to Rome.

Military movements on a vast scale were reported in Austria.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 25.

A horrible accident occurred at 12 o'clock this morning at Fort Griffith, between Rillston and Wilkesboro, at the Pennsylvania Coal Co.'s works. A car containing twelve miners started for the mine down a slope of 1500 feet, when about half way the rope broke and the car was precipitated to the bottom. Eight men were instantly killed, two are not expected to live, the balance were saved by jumping from the car.

LINCOLN IN MARYLAND.—Ex-Governor Francis Thomas, whom the democracy have often honored, takes bold ground against the southern fanatics. So far from the election of Lincoln giving the south cause for dissolution, Gov. Thomas, though a slaveholder, argues to the contrary. In a speech at Hagerstown, a few days since, he said:

"We have nothing to fear from the election of Mr. Lincoln. All formerly stood upon his platform. No one ever doubted the right of congress to legislate for the territories. He cared not what a man's abstract opinions were; we had had many free-soilers in the presidential chair. Jefferson was a rank free-soiler. Madison and Monroe were both free-soilers. He knew Mr. Fillmore well; and a better president we never had. Mr. Fillmore would have responded Yes, to every question put to Mr. Lincoln. Mr. Clay was an out and out free-soiler. 'So help me God,' said Mr. Clay, 'so help me God, I will never vote for the admission of slavery into any territorry where it does not now exist.'"

PRESS REMITTANCES.—The aggregate remittances received through the mails yearly by the proprietors of the New York daily and weekly newspapers, amount to five millions of dollars, as near as can be ascertained from data furnished by the proprietors themselves, in responses to inquiries made on this subject. This sum represents approximately the pecuniary interest of the New York press alone in the efficient working of our postal system. Add to this the immense number of remittances which are every day passing through the mails to the almost innumerable newspaper establishments both of city and country, and we shall have some adequate idea of the important duties which rest upon the employees of the postoffice department, considering the subject in its financial aspect.

HOW THE BAPTISTS GROW.—The American Baptist Almanac for 1861, has its accustomed interesting survey of denominational facts. Its footings show that there are in the United States 12,371 regular Baptist churches, 7,837 ordained ministers, 1,115 licentiates, and 1,020,442 communicants. These figures do not include the irregular Baptists, of whom, including the Campbellites, there are not less than half a million. Virginia has the largest number of regular Baptists of any one state in the Union, the aggregate being 107,283. New York stands next, at 92,873, and there are four other states, Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky and North Carolina, which have more than 50,000. The accessions to the denominational strength in 1859, are reported to be 72,080 baptisms, 246 ordinations, 180 new churches constituted, and 70 new meeting houses built. These are some of the hopeful statements of the Almanac, and every family should have a copy of it.

OLD CONGRESSMAN.—The venerable Andrew Stewart, who has just been elected to congress from Pennsylvania, has served sixteen years in the house of representatives, having first entered it in 1821. He will not find in either house a single man who was a member when he first entered public life. The only other member of the next house, who has served as long as Mr. Stewart, is Hon. John S. Phelps, of Missouri, who was first elected in 1844, and has been returned at every succeeding election. Mr. Stewart has been in retirement since 1857.

A VALUABLE GARMENT.—The following story comes to us on good authority: Some years ago a criminal officer was sent to N. Y. from a city in New England to bring back a fugitive from justice, who, as the train was proceeding through Rhode Island, jumped from the cars and made his escape. A great-coat which he left was appropriated by the officer, and carried home, where it was hung up, and only worn once or twice by him. The officer died a few weeks ago; and his widow while brushing the overcoat in question preparatory to its being laid by, noticed the covering of a button somewhat torn. On scratching it with her finger nail she discovered that the button-mould was a very precious article indeed; for it turned out to be a gold eagle—or ten dollar gold piece. On examination every one of the twelve buttons on the breast of the coat were found of similar value, besides two on the skirts—the total amount discovered being $140. We have little doubt that the eyes of the widow were too full for tears about that time—that is, they stuck out too far to furnish favorable receptacles for the lachrymal fluid.—Hartford Post.

SEWING MACHINES!

SINGER'S Shuttle Machine, with all the latest improvements, may be obtained at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Addy, corner of Franklin and Wall sts, near the Hyat House. This machine is warranted to be superior to any other in market, for all kinds of family sewing. Mrs. A., from her thorough acquaintance with this and the other kinds in use, feels entire confidence in recommending this to her friends and the public, as possessing superior advantages, as she will be ready to demonstrate to the satisfaction of those who may favor her with a call. Persons desirous of purchasing, are invited to call and examine for themselves. As a further inducement, Mrs. A. offers gratuitous instruction in the use of the machine to those who purchase of her; all necessary instruction to enable a person of ordinary capacity to operate the machine successfully can be given in the short space of one hour. Price, from $45, $55 up to $100, accordin gto size. Hemmers, Gauges and Needles kept with the machine. MRS. WM. ADDY.

MR. L. MOSES—Dear Sir:—Having had in constant use for nearly a year, a set of Lent's Patent Bed Springs purchased of you, I am prepared to recommend the same as the best article of the kind which has ever come under my notice. In fact it is the first and only bed spring I have been willing to use. Besides being exceedingly comfortable, it is at once simple, cleanly and durable. Its use, moreover, is condusive to health, as it sustains the mattrass in such a way as to expose its under surface at all times to a free circulation of air.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Gov. RANDALL

will speak at the Court Room in Janesville,

at 7½ o'clock. It is hoped that republicans from the country will attend as generally as possible.

DEMOCRATIC ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.—This convention last evening put in nomination Hamilton Richardson. His competitor was A. D. Stoddard, a worthy young man whom the "democracy" boasted was to take with him all the young men and the mechanics of the city, and a strong force of personal friends. Mr. Richardson received 6 and Mr. Stoddard 5 votes. It looks as if the managers of the party preferred the name and standing of Mr. Richardson to the "boys" support and mechanic interest of Mr. Stoddard.

☞ Dr. Robinson narrowly escaped an injury this morning. As he was driving down Milwaukee street, seated in his new buggy, his horse stumbled, in front of the Central Bank, and after two or three efforts to regain its footing, fell, breaking the thills to splinters, and "barking" its face and one fore leg. The horse was not fractious, or something worse would have resulted from this mere mishap.

NUISANCES.—The cows that are permitted to run loose about the streets are no more nor less than nuisances. They monopolize the sidewalks at night, and are not at all particular about the work they make for store-keepers in the morning.

☞ Senator Trumbull spoke in Rockford on Tuesday. The Democrat gives a very encouraging account of the progress of the republican cause in Winnebago Co.

NEHEMIAH ROOT.—The Monroe State Rights says—"This miserable old man, who was tried three years ago for the murder of his son-in law, and in whose case the jury could not agree, was arrested yesterday for threatening to take the lives of several citizens of this county, and is now lodged in jail here."

MURDER AND SUICIDE.—The Monroe Sentinel gives the particulars of a probable murder at Rock Grove and a suicide in the Freeport jail. The circumstances as related by the Sentinel are as follows:

It appears that a German hired man in the employ of a respected widow lady, had made proposals of marriage to his employer which she had rejected. The German under the impression that she was receiving attentions from another, had vowed the destruction of his rival.

On Tuesday last early in the evening Dr. Bachman of Rock Grove, a young esteemed physician called at the house of the widow lady on his way home to procure a quantity of flour for his family. The German mistaking Dr. Bachman for his supposed rival, stationed himself at the door armed with a butcher knife. When Dr. B. came, he attacked him, stabbing him several times in the breast, once through the arm, and drawing the knife across his back inflicted a frightful wound from which on one side the kidney protruded through the gash. The German on finding that he had attacked the wrong man went for another physician, to whom he stated that Dr. Bachman had been attacked by robbers and cut almost to pieces. The excited manner of the man led the physician to suspect something wrong and to disbelieve his story and he did not go until the next morning, when he was sent for.

The Dr. still lives but his recovery is among remote possibilities. He is much respected, and a promising physician. He is a brother of Mr. John Bachman, formerly of this place, and has a wife and child residing at Rock Grove.

The German was promptly arrested and taken to Freeport jail. Soon after his incarceration he tore up his sheet, made a rope and hung himself, and was found dead in his cell. The horrible affair has caused great excitement in Rock Grove and vicinity.

CAPACITIES OF EUROPEAN CHURCHES.—One of the European papers estimates the capacity of some of the larger churches as follows:

	Persons.
St. Peter's,	54,000
Milan Cathedral,	37,000
St. Paul's at Rome,	32,000
St. Paul's at London,	25,000
St. Petronio, at Bologna,	24,400
Florence Cathedral,	24,300
Antwerp Cathedral,	24,000
St. Sophio's, Constantinople,	23,000
St. John Laterean,	22,000
Notre Dame, at Paris,	21,000
Pisa Cathedral,	13,000
St. Stephen's, at Vienna,	12,400
St. Dominic's, at Bologna,	12,000
St. Peter's, at Bologna,	11,400

St. Mark's, Venice,	7,000

DEATH OF AN INDIAN CHIEF.—We learn that Shakopee, chief of one of the divisions of the Medawakantwan or Spirit Lake Sioux, died at Sioux Agency, Red Wood, one day last week. Shakopee had attained to an advanced age, at the time of his death being nearly ninety. The nominal chief of the tribe to which Shakopee belonged, is the distinguished Wapayshaw, or Wabashaw, still living, and the last survivor, we believe, of a coterie of chiefs who played a conspicuous part in the early history and settlement of the northwest. Shakopee's tribe number about four hundred at this time. He was much loved by the members of his tribe, and will be succeeded by his son. The town of Shakopee, on the Minnesota river, named after the chief, will transmit his name to posterity. His son's name is "The Other Speech."—St. Paul Pioneer.

SENDING FOR CRITTENDEN.—The Douglasites of Central Illinois have become so much alarmed at the probability of their utter rout, that they have sent a deputation to Senator Crittenden, of Kentucky, to induce him to come to Illinois and take the stump in the so-called American districts. But Douglas is past saving, even by know nothing salt.

KILLED.—Another accident resulting in the death of one of our citizens occured last Saturday. Hugh Gillard, well known as a man of intemperate habits, fell backwards down the stairs leading to the council chamber, and his head striking on the stone pavement, caused a serious wound that resulted in his death in the course of a few hours. He was evidently in a state of intoxication when he fell.—Racine Advocate.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

The Lockport, N. Y., republicans had a glorious meeting on Thursday last. Speeches were made by Lieut. Gov. Noble, of Wisconsin, Gen. Jessup, of Pennsylvania, Hon. Arthur Holmes, of Cortland, and Hon. Burt Van Horn, of Niagara. There were large day and evening processions.

The New London Conn. Star says a man has been found in that town who really believes that Douglas can possibly be elected President. Barnum's "What is it" is eclipsed!

The alternative of three years' imprisonment or being sold into slavery, being offered to two free negro thieves at Portsmouth, Va., on Tuesday, they chose the former.

Lady Franklin will soon leave New York for California, where, it is expected she will make her future residence.

Our exchanges from western Missouri and Kansas are filled with rejoicings, on account of a copious supply of rain.

The census of Charleston, S. C., shows a population of whites 23,327, free colored 3,267, slaves 13,606; total 40,155.

The same evening that the Prince declined the ball at West Point, on account of fatigue, it is asserted that he played nine pins.

"Abe Lincoln, so help us Heaven, shall never be our President," says the Atlanta [Geo.] Locomotive. Somebody ought to switch that Locomotive.

James M. Fish, a respectable citizen of Winneconne, Winnebago Co., writes to the Sentinel, warning the public against one Worthen, a daguerrean artist, who recently seduced his daughter and took her away with him and is now traveling with her as his wife. He has two other wives and is a villain of the darkest dye. When last heard from he was in Bad Axe county.

A HANDSOME CONTRIBUTION.—The Philadelphia visitors to Milwaukee, before leaving that city Monday afternoon, presented to Mayor Lynde the sum of four hundred and nine dollars, as their contribution to the Lady Elgin relief fund. This was just like the "City of Brotherly Love." Milwaukee will not forget it.

The La Crosse Republican says that the shipment of wheat alone, from that point during the present year, will exceed 500,000 bushels, to say nothing of the amount of oats, corn, flour, pork, &c.

We learn with deep regret that Mr. Tewksbury, principal of Beloit high school, is very ill of typhoid fever. His recovery, his friends here will be pained to learn, is considered doubtful.

INDICTED.—The Philadelphia Ledger of Saturday says that the Grand Jury has found a true bill against Wm. Byerly for the substitution of false election returns in the count for member of congress in the first district of Pennsylvania.

HIGHWAYMEN IN ST. PAUL.—The Pioneer complains "that the city is infested at the present time with a number of precious rascals, who are on the lookout for opportunities of robbery. Several gentlemen, leaving their places of business at a late hour, have been followed almost to the doors of their residences by these fellows, who in one or two instances were only restrained from violence by being resolutely faced and warned to keep at a distance."

Metal finger nails, to protect the fingers from the soreness incident to corn husking, are among the last inventions chronicled.

FROST IN GEORGIA.—A heavy frost occurred at Augusta, Ga., on the 17th, and thin ice was also made.

A CHILD EATEN BY RATS.—On Sunday afternoon a colored woman named Emma Anderson, who lives in a part of a house in Eaken Place, Philadelphia, went out and left her child, an infant only nine weeks old, in the care of Mrs. Davis, who lived in a part of the same house. Mrs. Davis locked the child up in the room occupied by its mother. Sometime afterwards, hearing the baby crying piteously, the woman repaired to the room and found that the child had been attacked by rats. The animals had eaten away the nose, and part of one cheek, and destroyed one eye. The poor infant presented a shocking appearance. The attending physician has no hopes of its recovery.

In his Opera house speech, Mr. Yancey asked how the white laborers of the north would like to have the slaves of the south turned loose among them. They would not like it at all, and nobody proposes to do anything of the sort; neither would the free laborers of the north like to be compelled to work alongside of slaves, and therefore the republicans are seeking to keep slavery out of free territory, so that the farmers, mechanics and laborers of the country may go in and occupy the lands, without being jostled about by chattels and domineered over by men who glory in owning labor.

Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying

The True Issue.

I believe this government cannot endure permanently half slave and half free. I do not expect the Union to be dissolved—I do not expect the house to fall—but I do expect it will cease to be divided. It will become all one thing, or all the other. Either the opponents of slavery will arrest the further spread of it, and place it where the public mind shall rest in the belief that it is in the course of ultimate extinction; or its advocates will push it forward, till it shall become alike lawful in all the states, old as well as new—north as well as south. —Abraham Lincoln.

WE MUST PREVENT THE REVIVAL OF THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE, AND THE ENACTING BY CONGRESS OF A TERRITORIAL SLAVE CODE. WE MUST PREVENT EITHER OF THESE THINGS BEING DONE BY CONGRESS OR COURTS. THE PEOPLE OF THESE UNITED STATES ARE THE RIGHTFUL MASTERS OF BOTH CONGRESS AND THE COURTS, NOT TO OVERTHROW THE CONSTITUTION, BUT TO OVERTHROW THE MEN WHO PERVERT THE CONSTITUTION.—Lincoln.

New York.

As the vote of New York will decide the election of President, all information as to the result of that vote is of absorbing interest throughout the Union. We have, ourselves, no doubt that the state will be carried by Lincoln. We do not believe that the arrangements made by party leaders for a fusion of all the elements of opposition to the republicans will be carried out by the masses of the opposing parties.—All reports from republican sources concur in confirming this belief, and the admissions of some of our opponents strengthen it. Among the latter is the following from the New York Herald:

"The day for the redemption of New York has gone by. She will vote for Lincoln, and if by a majority equal to the whole population of Kansas, it will not surprise us. There is no genuine fusion between the Breckinridge and Douglas factions. The breach has widened between them since these late elections."

The widening of the breach between the Douglas and Breckinridge factions is a natural result of the circumstances under which the candidate of both factions is in the field. The original division would never have been permitted if it could have been prevented. True, there is no essential disagreement on principles, much talk as there is about it, and there would probably be little difference in policy if either could obtain the control of the government. The real trouble is a war between men and factions, having in view solely the disposition of the patronage of the government. The difficulty is a family quarrel, and all experience attests that these quarrels are more embittered and the contestants less easily reconciled than any other.

But besides this general truth, the peculiar relations of the parties aggravate the difficulty. The advantages and benefits of a successful combination would be all on one side, and that side the weakest in the controversy. Under no possible circumstances can Douglas, who undeniably has the largest part of the democratic vote, reap any personal benefit from the election of the fusion ticket, and the other parties in the combination are only using the friends of Douglas to get the election into congress where Mr. Douglas would be slaughtered with more despatch and less mercy than in the Charleston convention. Indeed, this purpose is openly avowed, with more frankness than discretion, and with an insolence equal to the frankness. The Schenectady Reflector of the 10th inst., says:

Our Electoral Ticket.—To-day this paper raises the union ticket to its masthead. The gentlemen who wanted fusion have got more than they bargained for, because if this state is carried for anybody save Lincoln, Joseph Lane is the next president of the United States, and as for the Douglas and Bell electors, the Breckinridge men are crushing them. If they are satisfied to be used, we are willing to use them. We will vote the union ticket entire, and hope our fellow democrats will do the same without scratching. Look out that the Douglas-Bell men swallow their own dose. To the national democracy it is harmless—to the Douglas and Bell interest it is a swift poison.

Having defined our position, we leave the question to the people. Swallow the mixture, and make those who prepared it swallow it, for it will kill them politically ever after.

We have no idea that the friends of Douglas will permit the success of such a scheme, even if it were in their power; and we have as little idea that they have the power to perfect it if they have the disposition. New York is as certain for Lincoln as any future unsettled event can be; and with New York, he is just as certain of being elected to administer the government during the next presidential term.

The Demonstration at Milwaukee.—Having returned from Milwaukee at so late an hour as to be unable to give a description of the demonstration last night in honor of Carl Schurz, we can only say that it was estimated that there were 3000 torches in the procession, and that it was one of the most grand and brilliant ovations ever seen in the northwest.

We have a candidate of whom we are proud; and against whose good name even the Gazette will not dare to wag its tongue. Put your windy "when I was in the New York legislature" candidate to his best paces, gentleman, for the democracy have a nag on the course who will show him a clean pair of heels on the 6th of November next, or we are much mistaken.—Daily Dem.

The Gazette is very apt to adapt its treatment to the subject under charge. We freely admit that the "democracy" have experienced the unexpected good fortune of somehow inducing a gentleman to take a nomination at their hands whose personal character is irreproachable, and whose social standing entitles him to respect. The task of assailing personally and vituperatively a man who in all the qualities which constitute a good citizen and a well-bred gentleman is the equal of Mr. Richardson, we leave to the "Badwahs" who find in the Democrat a congenial and willing medium to exhibit their malice and cowardice.

We can find in Mr. Richardson's political affiliations and his candidacy of a party which has been thrust from power for its official abuses and corruptions, and subserviency to the demands of slavery, sufficien reasons for our own opposition, and sufficient cause for the opposition of every republican in the city, without imitating the bad example tendered by the defamers of Mr. Graham. We think, moreover, these reasons will be controlling enough to leave Mr. Richardson in a position to show "a clean pair of heels" to his political friends and not to his opponents. For the last five years, we have heard just such boasts before the election, over every democratic assembly nomination in this city, and at every election we have witnessed the signal defeat of the candidate who was to beat the republican nominee. So bring on your nag, and let us see his paces.

Good News from the North.—The Madison Journal of last evening says:—"Gov. Randall returned from a trip north, last evening. He had a large and enthusiastic meeting at Green Bay, and reports Sloan's prospects as number one.

Secretary Harvey returned also last night, from a trip into Grant county, where he went at Mr. Hanchett's request, to fill his appointments. The republicans of Grant county are talking about giving 1,600 majority for 'Honest Old Abe.'"

The Legislature.—We advise the republican rivals for the United States senatorship to not count with any very great certainty on the prospect that anybody of that stripe will be the lucky man. "The best laid schemes," we are told with almost the unction of prophecy, "gang aft agiee."—There is no sure thing that the republicans will have the legislature, at all. They may have the senate, but the few changes likely to take place, of which we are already advised, are enough to make the assembly close, if not to entirely change its complexion. We trust these gentlemen will not become so excited on the subject before the election as to be severely and deeply disappointed if all their chances are destroyed by the result.—Madison Argus.

This suggestion, though it comes from from an opponent, is timely. No intelligent man even hopes to give Douglas the state, or make any inroads upon the county officers in established republican counties. In this congressional district, at least, the election of a republican congressman is a foregone conclusion. The effort, to which everything else will be sacrificed, is to secure a majority in the legislature, and thus elect a democratic U. S. senator. And, perhaps, the republican party is not out of danger in this feature of the election. Whatever complications are made, and whatever stratagems may be resorted to, will have this object in view. What democrats are so anxious to accomplish, republicans should be zealous to avert. Let every republican then vote for republican candidates for the legislature, and resist every appeal, urged by whatever considerations it may be, to vote for democratic candidates. One vote in the legislature may possibly determine the majority there, and the consequent ability to elect the senator to be chosen next winter.

Value of Money.—It is a growing impression in Wall street, writes the New York correspondent of the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, that money will go a begging by the 1st of the month, at five per cent., and the impression is shared by private lenders as well as the banks. The business activity of the autumn, in most departments, is at an end; the specie shipments to Europe have stopped, while the California remittances are undiminished. The supply on all hands, therefore, is likely to be, as it is at present, considerably in excess of the demand.

All Explained.—It is now said that what has recently been chronicled as an earthquake, in various parts of the country, was merely the reverberations of the voices that have just spoken death and defeat to the democracy in Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio.—Buffalo Express.

Why Yancey Killed his Uncle.—As the murderer of his uncle is teaching democracy in the north, it may be well enough for our readers to know something of his character. The murder story is told as follows by the Knoxville (Tenn.,) Whig:

The fact that W. L. Yancey killed his uncle, Dr. Earle, of South Caralina, has been stated in general terms, but the details have not been given. Dr. Earle lived one mile and a half west of Greenville, where his widow still resides if alive. A few hundred yards distant is an old field, sometimes used for practicing on horseback, but more frequently resorted to as a muster ground.—This was the occasion of a drill muster, when Dr. Earle's son, about ten years old, went to the ground, as all boys seek to do, and during their wheeling and turning, the boy got into the way. Yancey ordered him to get out of the way, but the boy in his confusion, got more and more in the way, whereupon Yancey lashed him most unmercifully with a horse whip. Dr. Earle was not at home, but on returning home through town, a friend told him how cruelly Yancey had treated his son. Yancey told him that the boy had been very insolent, and that he had slapped his jaws. Dr. Earle replied that he had served him right. When Dr. Earle reached home and learned the facts, and found that Yancey had lied to him, he returned to Greenville in search of him. Yancey knowing the pluck of Dr. Earle, and that he would be detected in the falsehood, preparing himself for a fight. Dr. Earle found Yancey on Dr. Crittenden's porch, and in marching upon him was shot down by him with a pistol. These are the facts as we have them from one born and reared in that vicinity. The fact that he was convicted upon trial and imprisoned, and afterwards became the subject of executive clemency, corroborates the truth of this version.

Outrageous Robbery.—One of the most daring assaults and robbery ever committed in this city, was perpetrated on Thursday evening last.

Mr. M. B. Mead, well known to our readers as an old citizen of Racine, was on his way up Main street to Mr. Tuckerman's residence, about half-past eight o'clock, in the evening above mentioned, when just by Mr. John Dickson's he passed three men whom, on account of the darkness, he could not recognize. Almost instantly his arms were pinioned to his side by a powerful grasp, and at the same time something placed over his mouth to prevent his giving the alarm. For some minutes he struggled to get away, but was overpowered, thrown on the ground and kicked brutally, until from sheer exhaustion he lay still, when the scoundrels took his watch, a gold one and valuable, and his pocket book, which fortunately contained nothing but some notes and papers, after which they left him. Mr. Mead was severely bruised all over his body, and could scarcely reach Mr. Tuckerman's residence. No trace of the men has been found.—Racine Journal.

American Sensations—The Japanese Tommy.—Ever and anon, the newspapers publish a letter from the Japanese Tommy, in his peculiar style of English and orthography, in which he gives accounts of himself and his progress, of his recollections of America, its "butiful ladis, and the navy schule at Anaplish," which he intends some day to enter. It is evident that Tommy has not learned much more of our character than our language during his American trip. The innocent youth supposes that the craziness which the Japanese visit developed in the United States is chronic, and that we are all regarding them with the same frenzied enthusiasm that marked their progress through the United States. Poor fellow!—It seems strange enough, when in our sober senses, we look back, and think of the enormous excitement which transformed these yellow-skinned, narrow-headed, ferret-eyed and flat-footed barbarians into objects of popular admiration, and hardly know, we must admit, whether the people who made gods of such abominations, or the deities themselves, are the more absurd and irrational. But the Great Eastern and the Prince of Wales have long since obliterated every trace of the Japanese furor, and Tommy may rely upon it, that if he should come back to the United States, he might find it a more difficult matter to come within gunshot of a midshipman's berth at "Anaphlish" than he seems to imagine. If it is of any consolation to him, however, he may be assured that even his great rival, the Prince of Wales, will be as quickly forgotten as himself, except by the lucky maidens who have had the honor of his hand in the dance, and who may be possibly indulging visions which will keep them for a long time in a state of single blessedness.—Richmond (Va) Dispatch.

The Unconscious Destiny of Man.—In a recent sermon Henry Ward Beecher said:

The thread that goes into the loom does not know what it wants, or where it goes, or, what it is forming. It follows blindly the shuttle, and comes out at last on the surface of the shining silk, in vine and leaf, and blossom, or some figure. So we are being led in a way and by an influence which at the time we cannot interpret. If we have faith that God leads us, and follow him implicitly, these things which we cannot understand, work themselves out in our life.

We are in bondage of old superstition, and the worship of nine hundred and ninety-nine churches in a thousand is yet tinged with the somberness illustrative of the heathen element of fear. The lightness, the gaiety, the cheer of true worship, is but little known among men. What that the hiliarity of children is, breaking away from masters and schools, and romping home to overpower the household with joy, such is to be the worship of God's children. The name of father ought not to make any man tremble that is a child.

The work which God appoints for every man, is an indestructible work, whose foundations are in earth, whose superstructure goes up in Heaven; and it is to be "eternal in the heavens." There is nothing that man does out of himself, however glorious it may be, that can be compared to that work which is going on in his own soul.

Bank Letters.—Our belief in the infallibility of our banking friends is, we confess, slightly skaken, in view of the fact that over one thousand letters a year arrive at the New York post office, plainly addressed "New York," which belong to cashiers in other cities and towns, as is ascertained by consulting a list of cashiers in the United States, kept in the office for reference, and to enable the clerks to forward these stray missives to their proper destination. And a similar state of things exists in other large cities.

Horrors of the Slave Trade.—The scene on board the slave ship Erie, when captured, is beyond all description. On opening the hatches, which were all fastened down from one end of the deck to the other, with no light or air except what came in through side holes or ports—being almost as dark as a cellar—the stench which came up was intolerable. The negroes were stowed between decks, 3 or 4 feet apart stark naked, sitting down upon the floor with their legs apart, with another sitting between—"spoon fashion."

"What have the republicans done?" asks a doughface exchange, impudently.

Well, as far as heard from, they have just beaten the democrats terribly, and are in a fair way of beaten them entirely.

Important News from Europe.

By the arrival of the City of Washington, the details of a great victory by Garibaldi has been received. The battle was fought on the Volturno.

A brigade of Germans was cut off from the main body of the Nepolitan army and driven to the mountains. The Garibaldians took 5,000 prisoners, and it was estimated that the Nepolitans had 3,000 killed and wounded. The loss of the Garibaldians was stated at 2,000 men. The Royalists subsequently made a sortie from Capua for the relief of the German brigade, but were repulsed. The King of Naples and his brothers were present at the battle.

It was reported that three of the great powers had protested against the entry of Sardinia into Naples. Mazzini had entered Naples at the request of the pro-dictator. Advices from the papal states indicate no change in the state of affairs there. The Pope remains at Rome. Gen. Lamoriciere had returned to France. The French had occupied numerous places near Rome. It was reported that a third division will be sent from France to Rome.

Military movements on a vast scale were reported in Austria.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 25.

A horrible accident occurred at 12 o'clock this morning at Fort Griffith, between Rillston and Wilkesboro, at the Pennsylvania Coal Co.'s works. A car containing twelve miners started for the mine down a slope of 1500 feet, when about half way the rope broke and the car was precipitated to the bottom. Eight men were instantly killed, two are not expected to live, the balance were saved by jumping from the car.

Lincoln in Maryland.—Ex-Governor Francis Thomas, whom the democracy have often honored, takes bold ground against the southern fanatics. So far from the election of Lincoln giving the south cause for dissolution, Gov. Thomas, though a slaveholder, argues to the contrary. In a speech at Hagerstown, a few days since, he said:

"We have nothing to fear from the election of Mr. Lincoln. All formerly stood upon his platform. No one ever doubted the right of congress to legislate for the territories. He cared not what a man's abstract opinions were; we had had many free-soilers in the presidential chair. Jefferson was a rank free-soiler. Madison and Monroe were both free-soilers. He knew Mr. Fillmore well; and a better president we never had. Mr. Fillmore would have responded Yes, to every question put to Mr. Lincoln. Mr. Clay was an out and out free-soiler. 'So help me God,' said Mr. Clay, 'so help me God, I will never vote for the admission of slavery into any territorry where it does not now exist.'"

Press Remittances.—The aggregate remittances received through the mails yearly by the proprietors of the New York daily and weekly newspapers, amount to five millions of dollars, as near as can be ascertained from data furnished by the proprietors themselves, in responses to inquiries made on this subject. This sum represents approximately the pecuniary interest of the New York press alone in the efficient working of our postal system. Add to this the immense number of remittances which are every day passing through the mails to the almost innumerable newspaper establishments both of city and country, and we shall have some adequate idea of the important duties which rest upon the employees of the postoffice department, considering the subject in its financial aspect.

How the Baptists Grow.—The American Baptist Almanac for 1861, has its accustomed interesting survey of denominational facts. Its footings show that there are in the United States 12,371 regular Baptist churches, 7,837 ordained ministers, 1,115 licentiates, and 1,020,442 communicants. These figures do not include the irregular Baptists, of whom, including the Campbellites, there are not less than half a million. Virginia has the largest number of regular Baptists of any one state in the Union, the aggregate being 107,283. New York stands next, at 92,873, and there are four other states, Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky and North Carolina, which have more than 50,000. The accessions to the denominational strength in 1859, are reported to be 72,080 baptisms, 246 ordinations, 180 new churches constituted, and 70 new meeting houses built. These are some of the hopeful statements of the Almanac, and every family should have a copy of it.

Old Congressman.—The venerable Andrew Stewart, who has just been elected to congress from Pennsylvania, has served sixteen years in the house of representatives, having first entered it in 1821. He will not find in either house a single man who was a member when he first entered public life. The only other member of the next house, who has served as long as Mr. Stewart, is Hon. John S. Phelps, of Missouri, who was first elected in 1844, and has been returned at every succeeding election. Mr. Stewart has been in retirement since 1857.

A Valuable Garment.—The following story comes to us on good authority: Some years ago a criminal officer was sent to N. Y. from a city in New Fngland to bring back a fugitive from justice, who, as the train was proceeding through Rhode Island, jumped from the cars and made his escape. A great-coat which he left was appropriated by the officer, and carried home, where it was hung up, and only worn once or twice by him. The officer died a few weeks ago; and his widow while brushing the overcoat in question preparatory to its being laid by, noticed the covering of a button somewhat torn. On scratching it with her finger nail she discovered that the button-mould was a very precious article indeed; for it turned out to be a gold eagle—or ten dollar gold piece. On examination every one of the twelve buttons on the breast of the coat were found of similar value, besides two on the skirts—the total amount discovered being $140. We have little doubt that the eyes of the widow were too full for tears about that time—that is, they stuck out too far to furnish favorable receptacles for the lachrymal fluid.—Hartford Post.

The Foreigners Book of American Knowledge, or
THE UNITED STATES AND ITS PECULIARITIES.

CONTAINING a familiar explanation of the national traits, and social and domestic usages of its people, in 2 vols., 1st vol. 400 pages, 12 mo., price $1,—to appear as early as possible—by William B. West, Janesville, Wis.
Though favored by flattering testimonials from authors, publishers and the press, such is the present state of the book trade that an advance, to cover the expense of stereotype plates, is now required as the sine qua non of publication.
Under these circumstances the inhabitants of Janesville are respectfully called upon to enable their fellow citizen to submit his work, not only to the foreigners of this country, but to the people of the "United Kingdom," for their better understanding of American institutions and the advantages, privileges and greatness of this land of freedom.
Subscribers will be thankfully received by Mr. Dearborn, at Newell's bookstore (late Sutherland's,) Main street, Janesville, Wis. oct6dawtf

COUNTY COURT OF ROCK COUNTY.

In the matter of the estate of Benjamin M Cooley, deceased.

ON reading and filing the petition of S G Williams and James H Ogilvie, for the settlement of their account as administrators of said estate, it is ordered that the same be examined by this court, on the first Monday of November next, at ten o'clock A M, at the office of the judge thereof, in the city of Janesville, and that notice thereof be given to all persons interested by publishing a copy of this order for three successive weeks, once in each week, prior to said day in the Janesville Daily Gazette, a daily newspaper, published in said city.—Sept. 18th, 1860. By the court, oct11d4w AMOS P. PRICHARD, County Judge.

Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the circuit court for the county of Rock, on the 4th Monday of November, A D 1860, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, for an order vacating all that portion of the plat of the village of Edgerton, in the county of Rock and state of Wisconsin, known and described in said plat as lots No. 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17, in block number three.—Dated September 17, 1860. LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Gov. RANDALL

will speak at the Court Room in Janesville,

at 7½ o'clock. It is hoped that republicans from the country will attend as generally as possible.

DEMOCRATIC ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.—This convention last evening put in nomination Hamilton Richardson. His competitor was A. D. Stoddard, a worthy young man whom the "democracy" boasted was to take with him all the young men and the mechanics of the city, and a strong force of personal friends. Mr. Richardson received 6 and Mr. Stoddard 5 votes. It looks as if the managers of the party preferred the name and standing of Mr. Richardson to the "boys" support and mechanic interest of Mr. Stoddard.

Dr. Robinson narrowly escaped an injury this morning. As he was driving down Milwaukee street, seated in his new buggy, his horse stumbled, in front of the Central Bank, and after two or three efforts to regain its footing, fell, breaking the thills to splinters, and "barking" its face and one fore leg. The horse was not fractious, or something worse would have resulted from this mere mishap.

NUISANCES.—The cows that are permitted to run loose about the strrets are no more nor less than nuisances. They monopolize the sidewalks at night, and are not at all particular about the work they make for store-keepers in the morning.

Senator Trumbull spoke in Rockford on Tuesday. The Democrat gives a very encouraging account of the progress of the republican cause in Winnebago Co.

NEHIMIAH ROOT.—The Monroe State Rights says—"This miserable old man, who was tried three years ago tor the murder of his son in law, and in whose case the jury could not agree, was arrested yesterday for threatening to take the lives of several citizens of this county, and is now lodged in jail here."

MURDER AND SUICIDE.—The Monroe Sentinel gives the particulars of a probable murder at Rock Grove and a suicide in the Freeport jail. The circumstances as related by the Sentinel are as follows:

It appears that a German hired man in the employ of a respected widow lady, had made proposals of marriage to his employer which she had rejected. The German under the impression that she was receiving attentions from another, had vowed the destruction of his rival.

On Tuesday last early in the evening Dr. Bachman of Rock Grove, a young esteemed physician called at the house of the widow lady on his way home to procure a quantity of flour for his family. The German mistaking Dr. Bachman for his supposed rival, stationed himself at the door armed with a butcher knife. When Dr.B. came, he attacked him, stabbing him several times in the breast, once through the arm, and drawing the knife across his back inflicted a frightful wound from which on one side the kidney protruded through the gash. The German on finding that he had attacked the wrong man went for another physician, to whom he stated that Dr, Bachman had been attacked by robbers and cut almost to pieces. The excited manner of the man led the physician to suspect something wrong and to disbelieve his story and he did not go until the next morning, when he was sent for.

The Dr. still lives but his recovery is among remote possibilities. He is much respected, and a promising phyiscian. He is a brother of Mr. John Bachman, formerly of this place, and has a wife and child residing at Rock Grove.

The German was promptly arrested and taken to Freeport jail. Soon after his incarceration he tore up his sheet, made a rope and hung himself, and was found dead in his cell. The horrible affair has caused great excitement in Rock Grove and vicinity.

CAPACITIES OF EUROPEAN CHURCHES.—One of the European papers estimates the capacity of some of the larger churches as follows:

	Persons.
St. Peter's,	54,000
Milan Cathedral,	37,000
St. Paul's at Rome,	32,000
St. Paul's at London,	25,000
St. Petronio, at Bologna,	24,400
Florence Cathedral,	24,300
Antwerp Cathedral,	24,000
St. Sophio's, Constantinople,	23,000
St. John Laterean,	22,000
Notre Dame, at Paris,	21,000
Pisa Cathedral,	13,000
St. Stephen's, at Vienna,	12,400
St. Dominic's, at Bologna,	12,000
St. Peter's, at Bologna,	11,400
Cathedral of Vienna,	11,000
St. Mark's, Venice,	7,000

DEATH OF AN INDIAN CHIEF.—We learn that Shakopee, chief of one of the divisions of the Medawakautwan or Spirit Lake Sioux, died at Sioux Agency, Red Wood, one day last week. Shakopee had attained to an advanced age, at the time of his death being nearly ninety. The nominal chief of the tribe to which Shakopee belonged, is the distinguished Wapayshaw, or Wabashaw, still living, and the last survivor, we believe, of a coterie of chiefs who played a conspicuous part in the early history and settlement of the northwest. Shakopee's tribe number about four hundred at this time. He was much loved by the members of his tribe, and will be succeeded by his son. The town of Shakopee, on the Minnesota river, named after the chief, will transmit his name to posterity. His son's name is "The Other Speech."—St. Paul Pioneer.

SENDING FOR CRITTENDEN.—The Douglasites of Central Illinois have become so much alarmed at the probability of their utter rout, that they have sent a deputation to Senator Crittenden, of Kentucky, to induce him to come to Illinois and take the stump in the so-called American districts. But Douglas is past saving, even by know nothing salt.

KILLED.—Another accident resulting in the death of one of our citizens occured last Saturday. Hugh Gillard, well known as a man of intemperate habits, fell backwards down the stairs leading to the council chamber, and his head striking on the stone pavement, caused a serious wound that resulted in his death in the course of a few hours. He was evidently in a state of intoxication when he fell.—Racine Advocate.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

The Lockport, N. Y., republicans had a glorious meeting on Thursday last. Speeches were made by Lieut. Gov. Noble, of Wisconsin, Gen. Jessup, of Pennsylvania, Hon. Arthur Holmes, of Cortland, and Hon. Burt Van Horn, of Niagara. There were large day and evening processions.

The New London Conn. Star says a man has been found in that town who really believes that Douglas can possibly be elected President. Barnum's "What is it" is eclipsed!

The alternative of three years' imprisonment or being sold into slavery, being offered to two free negro thieves at Portsmouth, Va., on Tuesday, they chose the former.

Lady Franklin will soon leave New York for California, where, it is expected she will make her future residence.

Our exchanges from western Missouri and Kansas are filled with rejoicings, on account of a copious supply of rain.

The census of Charleston, S. C., shows a population of whites 23,327, free colored 3,267, slaves 13,606; total 40,155.

The same evening that the Prince declined the ball at West Point, on account of fatigue, it is asserted that he played nine pins.

"Abe Lincoln, so help us Heaven, shall never be our President," says the Atlanta [Geo.] Locomotive. Somebody ought to switch that Locomotive.

James M. Fish, a respectable citizen of Winneconne, Winnebago Co., writes to the Sentinel, warning the public against one Worthen, a daguerrean artist, who recently seduced his daughter and took her away with him and is now traveling with her as his wife. He has two other wives and is a villain of the darkest dye. When last heard from he was in Bad Axe county.

A HANDSOME CONTRIBUTION.—The Philadelphia visitors to Milwaukee, before leaving that city Monday afternoon, presented to Mayor Lynde the sum of four hundred and nine dollars, as their contribution to the Lady Elgin relief fund. This was just like the "City of Brotherly Love." Milwaukee will not forget it.

The La Crosse Republican says that the shipment of wheat alone, from that point during the present year, will exceed 500,000 bushels, to say nothing of the amount of oats, corn, flour, pork, &c.

We learn with deep regret that Mr. Tewksbury, principal of Beloit high school, is very ill of typhoid fever. His recovery, his friends here will be pained to learn, is considered doubtful.

INDICTED.—The Philadelphia Ledger of Saturday says that the Grand Jury has found a true bill against Wm. Byerly for the substitution of false election returns in the count for member of congress in the first district of Pennsylvania.

HIGHWAYMEN IN ST. PAUL.—The Pioneer complains "that the city is infested at the present time with a number of precious rascals, who are on the lookout for opportunities of robbery. Several gentlemen, leaving their places of business at a late hour, have been followed almost to the doors of their residences by these fellows, who in one or two instances were only restrained from violence by being resolutely faced and warned to keep at a distance."

Metal finger nails, to protect the fingers from the soreness incident to corn husking, are among the last inventions chronicled.

FROST IN GEORGIA.—A heavy frost occurred at Augusta, Ga., on the 17th, and thin ice was also made.

A CHILD EATEN BY RATS.—On Sunday afternoon a colored woman named Emma Anderson, who lives in a part of a house in Eaken Place, Philadelphia, went out and left her child, an infant only nine weeks old, in the care of Mrs. Davis, who lived in a part of the same house. Mrs. Davis locked the child up in the room occupied by its mother. Sometime afterwards, hearing the baby crying piteously, the woman repaired to the room and found that the child had been attacked by rats. The animals had eaten away the nose, and part of one cheek, and destroyed one eye. The poor infant presented a shocking appearance. The attending physician has no hopes of its recovery.

In his Opera house speech, Mr. Yancey asked how the white laborers of the north would like to have the slaves of the south turned loose among them. They would not like it at all, and nobody proposes to do anything of the sort; neither would the free laborers of the north like to be compelled to work alongside of slaves, and therefore the republicans are seeking to keep slavery out of free territory, so that the farmers, mechanics and laborers of the country may go in and occupy the lands, without being jostled about by chattels and domineered over by men who glory in owning labor.

TAXES.

The undersigned gives notice to all those who have not paid their city tax, that unless paid forthwith he will proceed to collect the same according to law.

Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incompatable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying

BOOTS & SHOES!

HAVING purchased the entire interest of Mr. W. A. Reynolds, in the well known Boot and Shoe store of

Reynolds & Vanderwarf,

I am now prepared to show what I know to be the largest and best stock of ever offered in this city. And I shall try and maintain the fair reputation of fair and honorable dealing, that this store has so long enjoyed by

BOOTS AND SHOES

SELLING GOOD GOODS

as cheap as the cheapest. I am now receiving my

Fall and Winter Stock of BOOTS & SHOES

all of which must be sold at some price. As the store I now occupy will be torn down soon, I shall close off my entire stock at and make ready to move into a new store with an entire new stock of goods. I am satisfied that I can sell goods at 25 Per Cent Less!

than any other establishment can sell the same quality of goods. All our old patrons and new ones who wish to

will find it to their advantage to give me a call and examine my goods and prices before purchasing elsewhere.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Gov. RANDALL

will speak at the Court Room in Janesville,

at 7½ o'clock. It is hoped that republicans from the country will attend as generally as possible.

DEMOCRATIC ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.—This convention last evening put in nomination Hamilton Richardson. His competitor was A. D. Stoddard, a worthy young man whom the "democracy" boasted was to take with him all the young men and the mechanics of the city, and a strong force of personal friends. Mr. Richardson received 6 and Mr. Stoddard 5 votes. It looks as if the managers of the party preferred the name and standing of Mr. Richardson to the "boys" support and mechanic interest of Mr. Stoddard.

☞ Dr. Robinson narrowly escaped an injury this morning. As he was driving down Milwaukee street, seated in his new buggy, his horse stumbled, in front of the Central Bank, and after two or three efforts to regain its footing, fell, breaking the thills to splinters, and "barking" its face and one fore leg. The horse was not fractious, or something worse would have resulted from this mere mishap.

NUISANCES.—The cows that are permitted to run loose about the strrets are no more nor less than nuisances. They monopolize the sidewalks at night, and are not at all particular about the work they make for store-keepers in the morning.

☞ Senator Trumbull spoke in Rockford on Tuesday. The Democrat gives a very encouraging account of the progress of the republican cause in Winnebago Co.

NEHIMIAH ROOT.—The Monroe S tate Rights says—"This miserable old man, who was tried three years ago for the murder of his son-in law, and in whose case the jury could not agree, was arrested yesterday for threatening to take the lives of several citizens of this county, and is now lodged in jail here."

MURDER AND SUICIDE.—The Monroe Sentinel gives the particulars of a probable murder at Rock Grove and a suicide in the Freeport jail. The circumstances as related by the Sentinel are as follows:

It appears that a German hired man in the employ of a respected widow lady, had made proposals of marriage to his employer which she had rejected. The German under the impression that she was receiving attentions from another, had vowed the destruction of his rival.

On Tuesday last early in the evening Dr. Bachman of Rock Grove, a young esteemed physician called at the house of the widow lady on his way home to procure a quantity of flour for his family. The German mistaking Dr. Bachman for his supposed rival, stationed himself at the door armed with a butcher knife. When Dr.B. came, he attacked him, stabbing him several times in the breast, once through the arm, and drawing the knife across his back inflicted a frightful wound from which on one side the kidney protruded through the gash. The German on finding that he had attacked the wrong man went for another physician, to whom he stated that Dr. Bachman had been attacked by robbers and cut almost to pieces. The excited manner of the man led the physician to suspect something wrong and to disbelieve his story and he did not go until the next morning, when he was sent for.

The Dr. still lives but his recovery is among remote possibilities. He is much respected, and a promising phyiscian. He is a brother of Mr. John Bachman, formerly of this place, and has a wife and child residing at Rock Grove.

The German was promptly arrested and taken to Freeport jail. Soon after his incarceration he tore up his sheet, made a rope and hung himself, and was found dead in his cell. The horrible affair has caused great excitement in Rock Grove and vicinity.

CAPACITIES OF EUROPEAN CHURCHES.—One of the European papers estimates the capacity of some of the larger churches as follows:

	Persons.
St. Peter's,	54,000
Milan Cathedral,	37,000
St. Paul's at Rome,	32,000
St. Paul's at London,	25,000
St. Petronio, at Bologna,	24,400
Florence Cathedral,	24,300
Antwerp Cathedral,	24,000
St. Sophio's, Constantinople,	23,000
St. John Laterean,	22,000
Notre Dame, at Paris,	21,000
Pisa Cathedral,	13,000
St. Stephen's, at Vienna,	12,400
St. Dominic's, at Bologna,	12,000
St. Peter's, at Bologna,	11,400
Cathedral of Vienna,	11,000
St. Mark's, Venice,	7,000

DEATH OF AN INDIAN CHIEF.—We learn that Shakopee, chief of one of the divisions of the Medawakantwan or Spirit Lake Sioux, died at Sioux Agency, Red Wood, one day last week. Shakopee had attained to an advanced age, at the time of his death being nearly ninety. The nominal chief of the tribe to which Shakopee belonged, is the distinguished Wapayshaw, or Wabashaw, still living, and the last survivor, we believe, of a coterie of chiefs who played a conspicuous part in the early history and settlement of the northwest. Shakopee's tribe number about four hundred at this time. He was much loved by the members of his tribe, and will be succeeded by his son. The town of Shakopee, on the Minnesota river, named after the chief, will transmit his name to posterity. His son's name is "The Other Speech."—St. Paul Pionecr.

SENDING FOR CRITTENDEN.—The Douglasites of Central Illinois have become so much alarmed at the probability of their utter rout, that they have sent a deputation to Senator Crittenden, of Kentucky, to induce him to come to Illinois and take the stump in the so-called American districts. But Douglas is past saving, even by know nothing salt.

KILLED.—Another accident resulting in the death of one of our citizens occured last Saturday. Hugh Gillard, well known as a man of intemperate habits, fell backwards down the stairs leading to the council chamber, and his head striking on the stone pavement, caused a serious wound that resulted in his death in the course of a few hours. He was evidently in a state of intoxication when he fell.—Racine Advocate.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

The Lockport, N. Y., republicans had a glorious meeting on Thursday last. Speeches were made by Lieut. Gov. Noble, of Wisconsin, Gen. Jessup, of Pennsylvania, Hon. Arthur Holmes, of Cortland, and Hon. Burt Van Horn, of Niagara. There were large day and evening processions.

The New London Conn. Star says a man has been found in that town who really believes that Douglas can possibly be elected President. Barnum's "What is it" is eclipsed!

The alternative of three years' imprisonment or being sold into slavery, being offered to two free negro thieves at Portsmouth, Va., on Tuesday, they chose the former.

Lady Franklin will soon leave New York for California, where, it is expected she will make her future residence.

Our exchanges from western Missouri and Kansas are filled with rejoicings, on account of a copious supply of rain.

The census of Charleston, S. C., shows a population of whites 23,327, free colored 3,267, slaves 13,606; total 40,165.

The same evening that the Prince declined the ball at West Point, on account of fatigue, it is asserted that he played nine pins.

"Abe Lincoln, so help us Heaven, shall never be our President," says the Atlanta [Geo.] Locomotive. Somebody ought to switch that Locomotive.

James M. Fish, a respectable citizen of Winneconne, Winnebago Co., writes to the Sentinel, warning the public against one Worthen, a daguerrean artist, who recently seduced his daughter and took her away with him and is now traveling with her as his wife. He has two other wives and is a villain of the darkest dye. When last heard from he was in Bad Axe county.

A HANDSOME CONTRIBUTION.—The Philadelphia visitors to Milwaukee, before leaving that city Monday afternoon, presented to Mayor Lynde the sum of four hundred and nine dollars, as their contribution to the Lady Elgin relief fund. This was just like the "City of Brotherly Love." Milwaukee will not forget it.

The La Crosse Republican says that the shipment of wheat alone, from that point during the present year, will exceed 500,000 bushels, to say nothing of the amount of oats, corn, flour, pork, &c.

We learn with deep regret that Mr. Tewksbury, principal of Beloit high school, is very ill of typhoid fever. His recovery, his friends here will be pained to learn, is considered doubtful.

INDICTED.—The Philadelphia Ledger of Saturday says that the Grand Jury has found a true bill against Wm. Byerly for the substitution of false election returns in the count for member of congress in the first district of Pennsylvania.

HIGHWAYMEN IN ST. PAUL.—The Pioneer complains "that the city is infested at the present time with a number of precious rascals, who are on the lookout for opportunities of robbery. Several gentlemen, leaving their places of business at a late hour, have been followed almost to the doors of their residences by these fellows, who in one or two instances were only restrained from violence by being resolutely faced and warned to keep at a distance."

Metal finger nails, to protect the fingers from the soreness incident to corn husking, are among the last inventions chronicled.

FROST IN GEORGIA.—A heavy frost occurred at Augusta, Ga., on the 17th, and thin ice was also made.

A CHILD EATEN BY RATS.—On Sunday afternoon a colored woman named Emma Anderson, who lives in a part of a house in Eaken Place, Philadelphia, went out and left her child, an infant only nine weeks old, in the care of Mrs. Davis, who lived in a part of the same house. Mrs. Davis locked the child up in the room occupied by its mother. Sometime afterwards, hearing the baby crying piteously, the woman repaired to the room and found that the child had been attacked by rats. The animals had eaten away the nose, and part of one cheek, and destroyed one eye. The poor infant presented a shocking appearance. The attending physician has no hopes of its recovery.

In his Opera house speech, Mr. Yancey asked how the white laborers of the north would like to have the slaves of the south turned loose among them. They would not like it at all, and nobody proposes to do anything of the sort; neither would the free laborers of the north like to be compelled to work alongside of slaves, and therefore the republicans are seeking to keep slavery out of free territory, so that the farmers, mechanics and laborers of the country may go in and occupy the lands, without being jostled about by chattels and domineered over by men who glory in owning labor.

TAXES.

The undersigned gives notice to all those who have not paid their city tax, that unless paid forthwith he will proceed to collect the same according to law.

Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying
